

Mentoring and Coaching Network

For Start-Up Mentees

EIT health's Mentoring and Coaching Network (MCN) is the Europe-wide platform of subject matter experts in the field of health and healthcare, that support entrepreneurs and their innovative Start-Ups through Mentoring Programs.

To create the vast pool of experts, with specific know-how and relevant track records (ranging from technical to legal and business area Mentors), EIT health has connected its individual Experts, Partners, Institutions and Corporations across Europe into one platform.

Start-Up Mentee application process

- i. Application to join the MCN as Mentee
- ii. Internal application review
- iii. Development of Mentee profile in MCN Platform
- iv. Mentoring Need Assessment
- v. Mentor identification/matchmaking
- vi. Mentor Program Development

Why join the Mentoring & Coaching Network as Mentee

- The EU platform of Health and Healthcare subject matter experts
- Established Mentoring Programs, ensuring quality engagements
- We work with world-class and innovative healthcare Start-Ups
- Our local Business Managers guide you through the process
- The opportunity to reach out, connect and grow together

To join the MCN: apply via the following link and contact your local Business Creation Manager to start discussing your specific Mentoring need and opportunity to find the right Expert Mentor.

Who can apply to become a Mentor: All EIT health entrepreneurs, as well as Start-Ups new to EIT health, with a serious proposal and Mentoring request can ask to join the MCN. Great expertise doesn't come for free, therefore applicants should have a minimum available budget of €1500 for a Mentoring Program.
