

Mentoring and Coaching Network

For Expert Mentors

EIT health's Mentoring and Coaching Network (MCN) is the Europe-wide platform of subject matter experts in the field of health and healthcare, that support entrepreneurs and their innovative Start-Ups via Mentoring.

Through its various Programs and extensive ecosystem, EIT health has become a reference in Europe for innovative and promising Start-Ups ranging from early-stage initiatives, to more mature Ventures. The MCN works as a facilitating Mentoring Platform that supports these entrepreneurs with their mentoring needs across the various maturity stages, ranging from advise on technical validation and IPR, to company formation and preparing for investment.

Expert Mentor application process

- I. Open application to join the MCN as Mentor Expert
- II. Review and Vetting Interview
- III. Development of Mentor profile in MCN Platform
- IV. On going collaboration to define potential Mentoring engagements

Why join the Mentoring & Coaching Network as Mentor

- The EU platform of Health and Healthcare subject matter experts
- We work with world-class and innovative healthcare Start-Ups
- Established Mentoring Programs, ensuring quality engagements
- Our local Business Managers guide you through the process
- The opportunity to reach out, connect and grow together

To join: apply via the following link. The Business Creation Manager from your region will get in touch to discuss your profile and next steps.

Who can apply to become a Mentor: All subject matter experts, relevant to the field of health and healthcare, that have a serious interest in collaborating as Mentor and have a minimum time availability, are encouraged to apply.